Jamie Robinson BES, MCIP, RPP

EDUCATION

2003
Bachelor of Environmental Studies
(Honours), Urban and Regional Planning, University of Waterloo

Jamie Robinson, BES, MCIP, RPP is a Partner with MHBC and provides planning services to a range of private and public sector clients. Mr. Robinson is a policy and regulatory specialist with expertise in the preparation of Official Plans, Zoning By-laws, Development Charge Studies, and the submission and review of Plans of subdivisions, consents, minor variance and site plan. He is familiar with the latest mapping tools available to planners and is capable of viewing planning issues from both a planning and technical perspective. Mr. Robinson has prepared functional Official Plan and zoning mapping for numerous municipalities across the Province.

Mr. Robinson has worked for a number of municipal clients in his time at MHBC including the Township of Oro-Medonte where his duties included answering daily planning enquiries and the processing of development applications.

Mr. Robinson has also reviewed development applications for the Township of Seguin including consent, minor variance and zoning by-law amendments. The Township's unique topography and sensitive landscapes including steep slopes, environmentally sensitive areas, fish habitat areas and at capacity lakes provide many challenges to land use planning.
